Dear friends,

It’s been a very busy year here at Vision Video. In April we helped bring The Pilgrim’s Progress to theaters nationwide during Easter week. The response was tremendous and the film continues to be well received all over the world.

As of August 1, Vision Video became a ministry of Christian History Institute. In the early 1980’s my dad, Ken Curtis, started both organizations. Christian History Institute was started as a non-profit to promote better knowledge of our Christian Heritage through print and video resources. Vision Video was created as a for-profit business to distribute a wide variety of Christian video content worldwide.

This past February I felt God prompting me to donate Vision Video to Christian History Institute (CHI) in order to better steward the resources of both entities. Combining the two organizations will help us achieve cost savings and greater efficiency, while maintaining our high standard of service and quality programming that you, our customers, have enjoyed for decades. It will also allow us to focus more on distributing and producing programming that we are passionate about, programs that clearly show the love and power of Jesus to change lives.

Here’s just one example of the benefits of merging CHI and Vision Video: Christian History Institute has just produced an Advent devotional called The Grand Miracle based on quotes from revered Christian writers such as C.S. Lewis and J.R.R. Tolkien (see page 12). We will include a free copy of The Grand Miracle with your Vision Video order of $25 or more received before November 15, 2019.

One series we’ve been working on for several years called Vindication is now available. This ten-part series is a Christian crime drama with similarities to the TV show “Blue Bloods.” Each episode not only deals with the hard reality of crimes such as sexual temptation, drug addiction, sexing, materialism, and human trafficking, but it also focuses on the redemptive story lines that are evident in the accused, the victims, and the police. Learn more about Vindication on page 40.

I wish you a blessed Advent and trust that Vision Video can help you and your loved ones appreciate the miracle of Christmas even more with the programs we offer.

Bill Curtis
President of Christian History Institute

When I joined Vision Video and Christian History Institute in 2014, the first film I was introduced to, during our weekly staff devotions, was Reflections on the Lord’s Prayer for People with Cancer from the Reflections series by Vision Video’s late founder, Dr. Ken Curtis. And even though I have not faced cancer, I have been inspired and blessed by Ken’s faith-filled wisdom as I have struggled with other life-changing obstacles. I have also shared sets of these videos with two dear friends who were battling cancer. I was moved to tears as each of them shared with me how Ken’s messages encouraged and strengthened their faith. I gladly and highly recommend this series to everyone, whether you are struggling with cancer or some other overwhelming challenge.
